BADAL PAUL

When the brush dips into the very lap of nature it emerges in myriad shades. The canvas becomes the expression of fertile imagination. Touches of blue skies, rippling rivers, and undulating greens, paint a picture of perfect harmony. You can almost hear the whisper of the soft breeze, and each and every painting of Badal Paul becomes a journey into the ethereal.

Badal Paul emerged from the wings of Indian College of Arts and Draftsmanship with a first class Diploma in Fine Arts, to explore a whole new world of imagination. Besides a passion for painting, Badal Paul's relentless pursuit of adventure and entrepreneurial spirit has taken him to the highest levels of advertising and exhibition designing. Today his penchant for the fine arts is steadily rising like a towering flame to illuminate horizons.
